

Computer Science Education Week	Computer Science Education Week is December 7-13. Challenge yourself to integrate computational thinking or computer science skills into your week. Example of Unplugged activities and Unplugged activities in Spanish from CS First. Or put a space spin on your celebration with NASA computer science educational resources	Every Oregon educator
Spacey Opportunities in Oregon	Join the Northwest Earth & Space Sciences Pipeline (NESSP) for a NASA Launch Briefing on the 2020-2021 NASA Roads on Asteroids student challenge on Wednesday, December 9th from 4:05 - 5:00 pm. Also, check out the Moon Pod Essay Contest for your students!	3-12 Educators
Oregon Game Project	The Oregon Game Project Challenge is an annual game development competition for middle and high school students. Teams of 2-7 students work together to make a video game exploring the current theme. For 2020-2021, the 14th year of OGPC, the theme is Resilience .	MS & HS

Grant Opportunity

Stay tuned for a grant opportunity for all CTE and STEM teachers coming your way January 2021!

Resources

- HDESD CTE/STEM Website
- Oregon Open Learning
- 10 Minute Museum Tour
- Building Futures Magazine
- Rural STE\(A\)M Learning Collaboratives
- Teaching K-12 Science and Engineering During a Crisis
- Oregon Apprenticeship

Contact Us

Brook Rich - 541.279.1077

Tracy Willson-Scott - 541.633.3443

Regine Childs - 541.693.5681

Leslie Waetjen - 541.693.5674

Equitable Remote Learning in Middle School Science

Are you a middle school science teacher teaching remotely who is committed to equity and justice? ODE is offering this virtual professional learning series FREE, and compensation is available to teachers for up to 12 hours of work.

